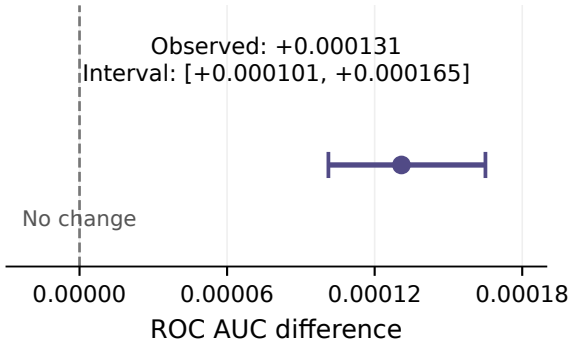
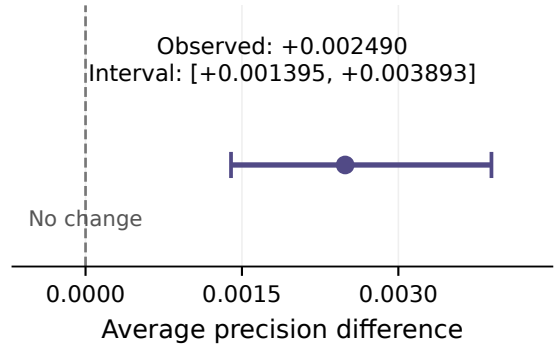
APS: paired differences between COPOD procedures

Fixed training-reference minus batch COPOD | Primary condition





Dots: observed differences. Bars: 95% percentile resampling intervals (2,000 paired draws).

Conditional on observed score-label pairs; original scores, batch reference and prevalence fixed.

No refitting or new-population uncertainty is represented. Values are in raw metric units.

Positive differences mean higher fixed-reference metrics; the observed improvements are small.